

WORTHINGTON WINS FINAL

Stroudsburg Golfer Defeats Bowers for Buckwood Trophy.

HIS MARGIN A BIG ONE

Handicap and Four-Ball Match Are Other Features of Good Programme.

(By Telegraph to The Tribune.)

Stroudsburg, Penn., Aug. 3.—The first leg on the New Buckwood trophy was won by R. S. Worthington, of the home organization, who defeated D. Bowers, of Brooklawn, 7 up and 6 to play, in the thirty-six-hole final of the invitation golf tournament at the Shawnee Country Club to-day. The local golfer always looked like a winner, taking the lead at the start and finishing the morning round 2 up.

Only for a brief spell during the morning, when, after being 4 up he lost four straight holes, did Worthington show any signs of undependability. Even so, he made the early round in 75. Bowers was off with his miasis, and as the match progressed his driving became erratic.

The card was as follows:

Worthington, out.	4	6	5	4	3	4	5	5	-20
Worthington, in.	5	7	6	4	2	5	4	-17
Bowers, out.	3	4	4	5	4	4	4	-17
Worthington, out.	5	8	5	3	4	5	4	-20
Bowers, out.	3	4	3	3	3	4	3	-17
Worthington, in.	6	4	3	3	3	4	3	-17
Bowers, in.	5	6	6	6	6	6	6	-36

The morning handicap was won by George Ewald, sr., of Yonatahah, who, aided by a liberal allowance, returned a 60 net. In the four-ball afternoon handicap J. F. Mehan, of Fox Hills, and Hugh J. Donnelly, of Brooklyn Forest Park, won with a card of 68-17-32. Prizes were presented at the inn during the evening.

A. W. Tillinghast, the club's secretary, managed to win the beaten eight cup of the first stanza, defeating Herman Wendell by 2 up in the decisive match. Tillinghast did not get up until the thirtieth hole. Howard W. Ferrin, of Merion, won the second sixteen cup, defeating L. M. Schuck of the Philadelphia Country Club, by a 3 and 4 score.

The morning follows:

Worthington, out.	4	6	5	4	3	4	5	-20
Worthington, in.	5	7	6	4	2	5	4	-17
Bowers, out.	3	4	4	5	4	4	4	-17
Worthington, out.	5	8	5	3	4	5	4	-20
Bowers, out.	3	4	3	3	3	4	3	-17
Worthington, in.	6	4	3	3	3	4	3	-17
Bowers, in.	5	6	6	6	6	6	6	-36

The morning handicap was won by George Ewald, sr., of Yonatahah, who, aided by a liberal allowance, returned a 60 net. In the four-ball afternoon handicap J. F. Mehan, of Fox Hills, and Hugh J. Donnelly, of Brooklyn Forest Park, won with a card of 68-17-32. Prizes were presented at the inn during the evening.

A. W. Tillinghast, the club's secretary, managed to win the beaten eight cup of the first stanza, defeating Herman Wendell by 2 up in the decisive match. Tillinghast did not get up until the thirtieth hole. Howard W. Ferrin, of Merion, won the second sixteen cup, defeating L. M. Schuck of the Philadelphia Country Club, by a 3 and 4 score.

The morning follows:

Worthington, out.	4	6	5	4	3	4	5	-20
Worthington, in.	5	7	6	4	2	5	4	-17
Bowers, out.	3	4	4	5	4	4	4	-17
Worthington, out.	5	8	5	3	4	5	4	-20
Bowers, out.	3	4	3	3	3	4	3	-17
Worthington, in.	6	4	3	3	3	4	3	-17
Bowers, in.	5	6	6	6	6	6	6	-36

The morning handicap was won by George Ewald, sr., of Yonatahah, who, aided by a liberal allowance, returned a 60 net. In the four-ball afternoon handicap J. F. Mehan, of Fox Hills, and Hugh J. Donnelly, of Brooklyn Forest Park, won with a card of 68-17-32. Prizes were presented at the inn during the evening.

A. W. Tillinghast, the club's secretary, managed to win the beaten eight cup of the first stanza, defeating Herman Wendell by 2 up in the decisive match. Tillinghast did not get up until the thirtieth hole. Howard W. Ferrin, of Merion, won the second sixteen cup, defeating L. M. Schuck of the Philadelphia Country Club, by a 3 and 4 score.

The morning follows:

Worthington, out.	4	6	5	4	3	4	5	-20
Worthington, in.	5	7	6	4	2	5	4	-17
Bowers, out.	3	4	4	5	4	4	4	-17
Worthington, out.	5	8	5	3	4	5	4	-20
Bowers, out.	3	4	3	3	3	4	3	-17
Worthington, in.	6	4	3	3	3	4	3	-17
Bowers, in.	5	6	6	6	6	6	6	-36

The morning handicap was won by George Ewald, sr., of Yonatahah, who, aided by a liberal allowance, returned a 60 net. In the four-ball afternoon handicap J. F. Mehan, of Fox Hills, and Hugh J. Donnelly, of Brooklyn Forest Park, won with a card of 68-17-32. Prizes were presented at the inn during the evening.

A. W. Tillinghast, the club's secretary, managed to win the beaten eight cup of the first stanza, defeating Herman Wendell by 2 up in the decisive match. Tillinghast did not get up until the thirtieth hole. Howard W. Ferrin, of Merion, won the second sixteen cup, defeating L. M. Schuck of the Philadelphia Country Club, by a 3 and 4 score.

The morning follows:

Worthington, out.	4	6	5	4	3	4	5	-20
Worthington, in.	5	7	6	4	2	5	4	-17
Bowers, out.	3	4	4	5	4	4	4	-17
Worthington, out.	5	8	5	3	4	5	4	-20
Bowers, out.	3	4	3	3	3	4	3	-17
Worthington, in.	6	4	3	3	3	4	3	-17
Bowers, in.	5	6	6	6	6	6	6	-36

The morning handicap was won by George Ewald, sr., of Yonatahah, who, aided by a liberal allowance, returned a 60 net. In the four-ball afternoon handicap J. F. Mehan, of Fox Hills, and Hugh J. Donnelly, of Brooklyn Forest Park, won with a card of 68-17-32. Prizes were presented at the inn during the evening.

A. W. Tillinghast, the club's secretary, managed to win the beaten eight cup of the first stanza, defeating Herman Wendell by 2 up in the decisive match. Tillinghast did not get up until the thirtieth hole. Howard W. Ferrin, of Merion, won the second sixteen cup, defeating L. M. Schuck of the Philadelphia Country Club, by a 3 and 4 score.

The morning follows:

Worthington, out.	4	6	5	4	3	4	5	-20
Worthington, in.	5	7	6	4	2	5	4	-17
Bowers, out.	3	4	4	5	4	4	4	-17
Worthington, out.	5	8	5	3	4	5	4	-20
Bowers, out.	3	4	3	3	3	4	3	-17
Worthington, in.	6	4	3	3	3	4	3	-17
Bowers, in.	5	6	6	6	6	6	6	-36

The morning handicap was won by George Ewald, sr., of Yonatahah, who, aided by a liberal allowance, returned a 60 net. In the four-ball afternoon handicap J. F. Mehan, of Fox Hills, and Hugh J. Donnelly, of Brooklyn Forest Park, won with a card of 68-17-32. Prizes were presented at the inn during the evening.

A. W. Tillinghast, the club's secretary, managed to win the beaten eight cup of the first stanza, defeating Herman Wendell by 2 up in the decisive match. Tillinghast did not get up until the thirtieth hole. Howard W. Ferrin, of Merion, won the second sixteen cup, defeating L. M. Schuck of the Philadelphia Country Club, by a 3 and 4 score.

The morning follows:

Worthington, out.	4	6	5	4	3	4	5	-20
Worthington, in.	5	7	6	4	2	5	4	-17
Bowers, out.	3	4	4	5	4	4	4	-17
Worthington, out.	5	8	5	3	4	5	4	-20
Bowers, out.	3	4	3	3	3	4	3	-17
Worthington, in.	6	4	3	3	3	4	3	-17
Bowers, in.	5	6	6	6	6	6	6	-36

The morning handicap was won by George Ewald, sr., of Yonatahah, who, aided by a liberal allowance, returned a 60 net. In the four-ball afternoon handicap J. F. Mehan, of Fox Hills, and Hugh J. Donnelly, of Brooklyn Forest Park, won with a card of 68-17-32. Prizes were presented at the inn during the evening.

A. W. Tillinghast, the club's secretary, managed to win the beaten eight cup of the first stanza, defeating Herman Wendell by 2 up in the decisive match. Tillinghast did not get up until the thirtieth hole. Howard W. Ferrin, of Merion, won the second sixteen cup, defeating L. M. Schuck of the Philadelphia Country Club, by a 3 and 4 score.

The morning follows:

Worthington, out.	4	6	5	4	3	4	5	-20
Worthington, in.	5	7	6	4	2	5	4	-17
Bowers, out.	3	4	4	5	4	4	4	-17
Worthington, out.	5	8	5	3	4	5	4	-20
Bowers, out.	3	4	3	3	3	4	3	-17
Worthington, in.	6	4	3	3	3	4	3	-17
Bowers, in.	5	6	6	6	6	6	6	-36

The morning handicap was won by George Ewald, sr., of Yonatahah, who, aided by a liberal allowance, returned a 60 net. In the four-ball afternoon handicap J. F. Mehan, of Fox Hills, and Hugh J. Donnelly, of Brooklyn Forest Park, won with a card of 68-17-32. Prizes were presented at the inn during the evening.

A. W. Tillinghast, the club's secretary, managed to win the beaten eight cup of the first stanza, defeating Herman Wendell by 2 up in the decisive match. Tillinghast did not get up until the thirtieth hole. Howard W. Ferrin, of Merion, won the second sixteen cup, defeating L. M. Schuck of the Philadelphia Country Club, by a 3 and 4 score.

The morning follows:

Worthington, out.	4	6	5	4	3	4	5	-20
Worthington, in.	5	7	6	4	2	5	4	-17
Bowers, out.	3	4	4	5	4	4	4	-17
Worthington, out.	5	8	5	3	4	5	4	-20
Bowers, out.	3	4	3	3	3	4	3	-17
Worthington, in.	6	4	3	3	3	4	3	-17
Bowers, in.	5	6	6	6	6	6	6	-36

The morning handicap was won by George Ewald, sr., of Yonatahah, who, aided by a liberal allowance, returned a 60 net. In the four-ball afternoon handicap J. F. Mehan, of Fox Hills, and Hugh J. Donnelly, of Brooklyn Forest Park, won with a card of 68-17-32. Prizes were presented at the inn during the evening.

A. W. Tillinghast, the club's secretary, managed to win the beaten eight cup of the first stanza, defeating Herman Wendell by 2 up in the decisive match. Tillinghast did not get up until the thirtieth hole. Howard W. Ferrin, of Merion, won the second sixteen cup, defeating L. M. Schuck of the Philadelphia Country Club, by a 3 and 4 score.

The morning follows:

Worthington, out.	4	6	5	4	3	4	5	-20
Worthington, in.	5	7	6	4	2	5	4	-17
Bowers, out.	3	4	4	5	4	4	4	-17
Worthington, out.	5	8	5	3	4	5	4	-20
Bowers, out.	3	4	3	3	3	4	3	-17
Worthington, in.	6	4	3	3	3	4	3	-17
Bowers, in.	5	6</td						